

Spring Symposium | March 17

Join the Mechanical Engineering Department on Friday, March 17 for our first annual Spring Symposium. We are hosting three events and hope to see you there!

Faculty Panel on Professional Development

1:30 - 2:30 PM in Hopeman 224

Hosted by the American Society of Mechanical Engineers (ASME), this panel will feature three faculty - Professor Douglas Kelley, Professor Jessica Shang, and Professor Ranga Dias. They will discuss research, mentoring, and other topics related to professional development.

Year in Review with Identity-Driven Clubs

2:30 - 3:30 PM in Hopeman 224

Join the Society of Women Engineers (SWE), Society of Hispanic Professional Engineers (SHPE), Society of Asian Scientists and Engineers (SASE), and Out in STEM (OSTEM) to learn about what they have accomplished in the last year, challenges they have faced, and how they support underrepresented students.

Poster Social

3:30 - 5:00 PM in the Rettner Atrium

At this casual event, students will have the opportunity to learn more about the ME Department and opportunities outside the classroom. Stop by to talk to faculty about their research, meet representatives from engineering clubs, the ME Graduate Coordinator, and members of our Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Committee. Refreshments served.
